Every year, I leave Kladovo with the impression that this year's Bofosijada was even better than the previous one. This year, I say that with special pleasure. These were five unforgettable days of friendship, sports competitions, and wonderful moments together. Congratulations to my NLB Group team. Once again, the organizers of Bofosijada have outdone themselves. See you next year!

This was my first time attending Bofosijada, and I can truly say that I am leaving with wonderful memories. I spent five amazing days, met many wonderful people, and enjoyed the friendship, sports activities, and great team spirit.

This experience has motivated me even more to dedicate myself to sports, try different disciplines, and prepare even better for the next Bofosijada.

Thank you to everyone who took part in the organization and made this an unforgettable experience. I am looking forward to our next gathering and to new sporting challenges!
